We encourage you to participate in as many of the program stations as possible, but you are certainly not required to do so. If you and your Cub Scout agree that you want more free time to go exploring, spend some time in your campsite, or even take a rest please feel free to do so. All areas are open during the “Program Station” times. Have fun at which ever area you choose, but if there are a lot of people already there please go to a different one and come back later. See you out there!
